Pathways to Freedom Tour

Join us on our Pathways to Freedom Tour, where history comes alive as we journey through the powerful stories of the fight for liberation. Our day begins at the Harriet Beecher Stowe Home, where we'll delve into the life of the author of Uncle Tom's Cabin, a complex yet passionate figure in the anti-slavery movement. Stowe's work sparked conversations that helped fuel change and awareness across the nation.

In the afternoon, we'll visit the Underground Railroad Freedom Center, an inspiring museum dedicated to the brave individuals who risked everything to escape the bonds of slavery. Through immersive exhibits, we'll explore the often-overlooked chapters of American history, learning about the immense courage and sacrifices of those who paved the way to freedom.

Join us for a day of reflection and inspiration as we walk in the footsteps of history's freedom fighters and honor their legacy.

The tour package features:

- Bus transportation
- Driver's gratuity
- Admission to all attractions
- Lunch at Pompilio's Italian Restaurant, famously known for its appearance in the film Rain Man
 - Dinner at your leisure on our way back home
